

Come & Enjoy
Raven Theater
"Special Pre Opening Performance"

The Night of the Iguana

by Tennessee Williams

Friday, October 12, 2007

Support the Fall Fundraiser

Edgewater Development Corporation

6:00 p.m. Appetizers & drinks

7:30 p.m. Production begins

Ticket Price: $50.00 pre-registered $55.00 at door

Theater location: 6157 North Clark Street
Free parking available

Funds raised will go to the EDC
For further information, please call EDC at 773-506-4016
To the extent allowed by law, a portion of the donation is tax-deductible

-----
Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Number of tickets _____ for EDC 10/12 Fundraiser at Raven Theater

Please make checks payable to the Edgewater Development Corporation, 6044 N. Broadway, Chicago, IL 60660
You may also pay by credit card by calling 773-506-4016.

Photo of Ava Gardner & Richard Burton from the classic film production of "The Night of the Iguana"

Raven Founder Michael Menendian says,
"I am thrilled to begin our 25th Anniversary Season with the playwright who started it all:
Tennessee Williams, whose 27 Wagons Full of Cotton was Raven's very first play in 1983."

The Night of the Iguana is set in Mexico in 1939, where an American widow endeavors to keep both her tropical hotel and her love life intact.

Her guests include:
the defrocked Reverend Shannon, desperately struggling with addictions
to alcohol and young women;
the ethereal yet penniless artist Hannah Jelkes;
her grandfather Nonno, "the oldest living and practicing poet;"
a family of boisterous Germans;
and a difficult busload of Baptist women.

This Tony Award-winning play by two-time Pulitzer Prize-winner
Tennessee Williams is a provocative exploration of human struggle and passion -- full of intense drama, biting wit, and sexual tension.